PREPARATION FOR THE BLESSED MONTH OF RAMADAN.

Some people question that when they enter the blessed month of Ramadan and Shayateen (devils) are locked up as mentioned in authentic ahadith, why is it that they still do sin?

Abu Hurayrah (RA) who said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "When Ramadan begins, the gates of Paradise are opened and the gates of Hell are closed, and the devils are put in chains." (Narrated by al-Bukhari (3277) and Muslim (1079).

The main reason ulama give is that there are 3 things a person accumulates throughout the year:

1. Satanic whispers
2. A habit of doing good deeds or bad deeds
3. One's desires (nafs)

When Ramadan comes, the Shayateen are chained, however, the continuity of doing good or bad deeds and desires of the soul carry on into Ramadan. It is therefore important prior to entering Ramadan that one is maximising in doing good deeds, being in a good environment, fleeing from committing sins and controlling one's nafs (desires).

Below are a few good habits that a person can make in order to enter the blessed month of Ramadan in a strong spiritual state:

1. Have a strong firm intention to do all good to please Allah and receive his mercy.
2. Try to read as many Salah with Jamaat in the masjid.
3. Starting now, to take out 30 mins each day to recite the Holy Qur'an.
4. Do tasbeeh of supplication for repentance (Astaghfirullah).
5. To try fasting on the sunnah days or to try to cut back on eating.
6. Make as much dua'as as possible.
7. Start giving charity regularly, even £1 a day.
8. Do good deeds little but frequently. Allah loves actions that are done frequently.
